Federated Nat. Ins. Co. v. Restoration 1 of South Florida, LLC, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 71653 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

An action for declaratory judgment must be within the monetary jurisdiction of the court in which it is filed, i.e., over $15,000 in controversy if filed in circuit court.

Kelly v. BankUnited, FSB, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 71694 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Mortgagor is entitled to an award of attorneys' fees as the prevailing party in a foreclosure action if suit is voluntarily dismissed as part of a voluntary short sale.

AMS Staff Leasing, Inc. v. Taylor, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 71705 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Threatened loss of continued employment and improper influence by a third party do not constitute "duress" such to invalidate an employment agreement.

Nucci v. Target Corp., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 71726 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

The function of social networking sites is to share personal information, thus information posted on social networking sites are neither privileged nor protected by any right of privacy.

Southern Comfort Grill, Inc. v. Hanks Const., LLC, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 71753 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

In order to permit intervention, a trial court must first determine whether a party's interest is indispensable and then examine whether the party's interest is of a direct and immediate character.

Bank of New York v. Calloway, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 71816 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A witness may testify to the business records acquired from another business so long as the acquired records are now business records of the acquiring business and the trial court is satisfied of the trustworthiness of the acquired records through additional evidence, clarifying the holding of WAMCO XXVIII, Ltd. v. Integrated Electronic Environments, Inc., 903 So.2d 230 (Fla. 2d DCA 2005).

Richardson v. Everbank, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 71850 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Lender does not violate § 15 U.S.C. § 1691(a)(1) (2012) of the Equal Credit Opportunity Act of 1974 (lenders may not discriminate on the basis of gender or marital status of a credit applicant) by requiring spouse to sign loan instruments when a substantial amount of the assets pledged as security are owned by both spouses.

Infrax Systems, Inc. v. Wood, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 72260 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

A party may not claim damages under Florida Statute § 68.065 (treble damages for dishonored checks) when it merely inquires at the account holder's bank whether the account has sufficient funds but never presents the check.

Paramo v. Floyd, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 72444 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

A default only admits liquidated damages, and damages are not liquidated if taking of evidence is necessary in order to establish the actual amount of damages.

Allied Shelving & Equipment, Inc. v. National Deli, LLC, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 72487 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

“Hybrid” contracts sales contracts have a sale of goods component (covered by the Uniform Commercial Code) and a provision of services component (not covered by the Uniform Commercial Code).

Collins v. Experian Information Solutions, Inc., --- F.3d ----, 2015 WL 55345 (11th Cir. 2015).

A consumer's credit report need not be published to a third party for actual damages to accrue under 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a).

Hubsch v. Howell Creek Reserve Community, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 196171 (Fla. 5th DCA 2015).

Party is denied due process when they file a timely and proper motion to appear telephonically at a dispositive hearing and the motion is denied.

The Florida Bar v. Marrero, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 175189 (Fla. 2015).

Attorney violated rule of professional conduct prohibiting attorneys from conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation by failing to inform lender that funds she provided were not being used as she instructed as first mortgage, failing to inform second lender of prior loan, and failing to list prior loan on title commitment.

Jomar Properties, L.L.C. v. Bayview Const. Corp., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 159055 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Asking questions to understand the issues does not demonstrate the “evident partiality” required to vacate an arbitration award. “Results obtained” under Florida Patient’s Compensation Fund v. Rowe, 472 So.2d 1145 (Fla.1985), means both examining what issues were won or lost and how much was won (or not won).

Snow v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 160326 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

The following is a notice of default, not an automatic or self-executing acceleration that starts the running of the statute of limitations, because it does not state the debt has been accelerated, does not state the full amount due, and merely states that the debt will be accelerated in the future:

This letter serves as further notice that EMC Mortgage Corporation intends to enforce the provisions of the Note and Security Instrument. You must pay the full amount of the default on this loan by the thirty-fifth (35th) day from the date of this letter which is 01/10/2008 (or if said date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, then on the first business day thereafter). If you do not pay the full amount of the default, we shall accelerate the entire sum of both principal and interest due and payable, and invoke any remedies provided for in the Note and Security Instrument, including but not limited to the foreclosure sale of the property

Casino Inv., Inc. v. Palm Springs Mile Associates, Ltd., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 160703 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

A trial court is without jurisdiction on remand to change the law of the case as directed by the appellate court in the prior appeal.

T-Mobile South, LLC v. City of Roswell, Ga., --- S.Ct. ----, 2015 WL 159278 (2015).

A locality must provide reasons in writing for denying a cellular tower siting permit, and the determination must be supported by substantial, competent evidence so as to comply with the Telecommunications Act of 1996, § 332(c)(7)(B)(iii), 47 U.S.C.A. § 332(c)(7)(B)(iii).

Jesinoski v. Countrywide Home Loans, Inc., --- S.Ct. ----, 2015 WL 144681 (2015).

The Truth In Lending Act only requires that written notice of intent to seek rescission be given within three-year period; the filing of suit within that time is not required.

National Maritime Services, Inc. v. Straub, --- F.3d ----, 2015 WL 151703 (11th Cir. 2015).

A district court has ancillary jurisdiction over a judgment creditor's supplementary proceedings that is filed to avoid a fraudulent conveyance.

In re Professionalism Complaints, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 357969 (Fla. 2015).

Members of local professionalism panels are entitled to absolute immunity from civil suits for work associated with the panels.

In Re: Standard Jury Instructions In Civil Cases -- Report No. 2014-02, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 357994 (Fla. 2015).

Standard Civil Jury Instructions 201.2 (Introduction of Participants and Their Roles) and 202.4 (Juror Questions) are slightly revised.

Holt v. Calchas, LLC, --- So.3d ----, 2014 WL 5614374 (Fla. 4th DCA 2014).

A witness not from the company that prepared the business records must be sufficiently familiar with the procedures at the company where the business records were prepared that she can meet the foundation requirements of the Business Records Exception to the Hearsay Rule; it is not necessary to call the person who prepared the document to testify to admit the document under the Rule so long as proper foundation is laid.

Wachovia Mortg., FSB v. Montes, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 340764 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A court may not involuntarily dismiss a case before the plaintiff concludes presenting their case.

Epstein v. Bank of America, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 340781 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A mortgage with an incorrect legal description may be corrected before foreclosure, but only in a new, separate proceeding after foreclosure.

Colon v. JP Morgan Chase Bank, NA, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 477629 (Fla. 5th DCA 2015).

A verified complaint may support a motion for summary judgment, but only if it is made on personal knowledge and otherwise in compliance with the rules of evidence.

Bendo v. Silver Woods Community Ass'n, Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 477631 (Fla. 5th DCA 2015).

Covenants that run with the land are construed in favor of the free and unrestricted use of land, and ambiguous covenants are construed in favor of the landowner.

Life Care Ponte Vedra, Inc. v. H.K. Wu, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 477815 (Fla. 5th DCA 2015).

Construction of a contract against its drafter is a secondary rule of interpretation to be used only when intent cannot be ascertained by other means. Moreover, an ambiguous contract may be interpreted as a matter of law when the ambiguity can be resolved through undisputed parol evidence of the parties.

AmMed Surgical Equipment, LLC v. Professional Medical Billing Specialists, LLC, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 489744 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

Bankruptcy Code section 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(a) and 108(c) prevail over Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.130(b) such that the automatic stay prevents a debtor from filing a notice of appeal within thirty days of rendition but allows the debtor to file the notice of appeal within thirty days of the order lifting the bankruptcy stay.

Waterview Towers Yacht Club-Ultimate, Owners' Ass'n, Inc. v. Givianpour, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 468996 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).

There is no "right of redemption," only an "equity of redemption," after foreclosure. The equity of redemption will be extinguished upon the filing of the certificate of sale if the final judgment so provides.

Juno Ocean Walk Condominium Ass'n, Inc. v. North County Co., Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 444341 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Allowing a party to opt out of a class action final judgment is a "modification" and not "enforcement" of the judgment, so a trial court's "enforcement" of the final judgment is not proper if untimely under time requirements of Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.540.

Ryan v. City of Boynton Beach, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 444440 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

While reduction of appellate fees may be proper, a landowner in condemnation proceedings cannot be denied his appellate attorney's fees simply because he was not the prevailing party in the appeal.

Faddis v. City of Homestead, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 543128 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

An appellate court may sua sponte award fees as a sanction under Florida Statute § 57.105, and may require the fees sanction to be paid by counsel alone.

Salazar v. HSBC Bank, USA, NA, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 543411 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

Objections to a foreclosure sale can only be directed to the sale (not the underlying litigation or the judgment itself), and must demonstrate fraud, mistake or other irregularity in the conduct of the sale.

Foche Mortg., LLC v. CitiMortgage, Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 548405 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

A trial court is without jurisdiction to rule on an untimely motion seeking relief under Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.530.

Meadowbrook Meat Co. v. Catinella, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 574042 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

Orders granting motions for new trial are subject to a heightened abuse of discretion standard, i.e., a stronger showing of abuse of discretion is required to overturn an order granting a new trial than is required to sustain an order denying a motion for new trial.

Skelton v. Lyons, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 574248 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

A purchaser at foreclosure sale has a protectable legal interest, and the foreclosure sale may not be aside without due process to the foreclosure sale purchaser, i.e., notice and a legal basis for vacating the sale.

Department of Transp. v. Mid-Peninsula Realty Inv. Group, LLC, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 630201 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

Land held in fee by Department of Transportation is subject to being extinguished under Marketable Record Title Act as land held in fee is not subject to “easements exception under Florida Statute section 712.03(5), following Florida Department of Transportation v. Dardashti Properties, 605 So.2d 120 (Fla. 4th DCA 1992), and certifying conflict with Clipper Bay Investments, LLC v. State, Department of Transportation, 117 So.3d 7 (Fla. 1st DCA 2013).

Wiand v. Schneiderman, --- F.3d ----, 2015 WL 525694 (11th Cir. 2015).

City of Jacksonville v. Smith, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 798154 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).
 Construction or development on an adjacent parcel does not “inordinately burden” a parcel of real property so as to provide compensation under the Bert Harris Act, Florida Statute § 70.001.

HSBC Bank USA, Nat. Ass'n v. Karzen, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 798946 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).

If the affected party has notice of the claim during the limitations period, an amended complaint relates back to the filing date of the original claim even if the amended claim is filed beyond the statute of limitations period.

Hart v. Wachovia Bank, Nat. Associates, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 798961 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).

The waiver provisions of a guaranty may suffice as the “agreed otherwise in writing” requirement of Florida Statute section 222.11 for written consent to a continuing writ of garnishment.

Edge Pilates Corp. v. Tribeca Aesthetic Medical Solutions, LLC, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 774635 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A landlord proves a prima facie case for eviction when it proves the rental agreement, failure to make required rental payments, and the service of a three day notice.

Club Mediterranee, S.A. v. Fitzpatrick, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 799256 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

A court will look to the factual allegations of a complaint, not the causes of action asserted, in determining whether a law suit falls within an arbitration provision.

Two Islands Development Corp. v. Clarke, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 799270 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

A court cannot issue an injunction which interferes with the rights of those who are not parties to the litigation.

Lorant v. Whitney Nat. Bank, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 754244 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).

A party may not “supplement” its final judgment (including substantive provisions that allow deficiency judgments to be domesticated in foreign jurisdictions) under Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.540 (a) as the rule only corrects clerical mistakes.

In re Rosenberg, --- F.3d ----, 2015 WL 845578 (11th Cir. 2015).

A debtor may be awarded trial court and appellate attorneys’ fees for a bad faith filing of an involuntary petition which is later dismissed.

Alexander v. Quail Pointe II Condominium, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 965668 (Fla. 5th DCA 2105).

The Doctrine of Invited Error applies whether the error was invited solely by appellant's counsel or jointly by appellant's and appellee's counsel, i.e., agreed to by all counsel.

Fern v. Eagles' Reserve Homeowners' Ass'n Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 968465 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

Owners subject to homeowner's associations may not have the same obligations as condominium owners to fund assessments levied to pay obligations of the association as condominium associations require greater protection of their common elements.

Florida Dept. of Transp. v. Mallards Cove, LLP, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 968710 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

Deposit of condemnation funds under "quick take" condemnation proceedings entitles the landowner to full compensation for the taking, but not necessarily to the fund itself that has been deposited. Thus, landowners are not entitled to interest that has accrued on the deposited "quick take" funds.

In re Amendments to Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 919765 (Fla. 2015).

Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.491 is amended so that mortgage foreclosure magistrates have the same powers as general magistrates under Rule 1.490.

Simon v. Koplin, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 895319 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

Pursuant to Florida Statute section 689.15, joint tenants may agree to have ownership interests contain survivorship rights even if the joint interests are not equal.

Pronman v. Styles, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 894245 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015) (en banc).

Based upon an amendment to Florida Statute section 57.105, the Fourth District recedes from Perlman v. Ameriquest Mort. Co., 987 So.2d 1292 (Fla. 4th DCA 2008), and holds that a trial court need not make an "express finding that the attorney was not acting in good faith based upon the representations of his client."

HSBC Mortg. Corp. (USA) v. Mullan, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 894254 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

Trial courts may grant summary judgment only on bases that have been raised in the motion for summary judgment itself.

Hatadis v. Achieva Credit Union, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 894319 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).
A forbearance agreement that waives notice requirements during the term of the forbearance agreement does not constitute an agreement to waive notice after the forbearance agreement ends.

Hamilton v. Pilgrim's Pride Corp., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 873531 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).

Claims arising during the pendency of a bankruptcy may be a liability “incurred and payable in the ordinary course of business” of the bankruptcy debtor and not required to go through the bankruptcy administrative claims process or barred by failure to do so.

Direct Marketing Ass'n v. Brohl, --- S.Ct. ----, 2015 WL 867663 (2015).

Colorado’s statutory requirement for informational filings on sales inside the state is not a “tax,” and thus suits over the statute are not barred by the Tax Injunction Act.

Clements v. LSI Title Agency, Inc., --- F.3d ----, 2015 WL 857964 (11th Cir. 2015).

Title insurance agent, law firm and attorney earned their portion of settlement fee, and thus did not violate RESPA as they witnessed the closing, and provider did not violate RESPA by marking up price of government recording charges as the government entity actually provided a service and gave nothing back to provider.

Bank of New York Mellon v. Mestre, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1071113 (Fla. 5th DCA 2015).

A note and mortgage that is fraudulently executed is not an enforceable contract, and thus does not provide prevailing defendants with a basis for contractual attorneys' fees.

Fiore v. Hilliker, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1088449 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

Summary judgment is not appropriate if there are two reasonable interpretations of a contract because there remains an issue of fact regarding the parties' intent.

Sybac Solar AG, Co. v. Falz, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1088480 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

While a written order deciding a forum non conveniens motion need not detail the trial court's four-step analysis under Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.061(a), the record must demonstrate the court considered and ruled on the factors.

In re Amendments to Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.210, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1058130 (Fla. 2015).

The rule is amended to permit longer appellate briefs in death penalty cases.

Harold v. Sanders, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1034621 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

If an arbitrator serves a Florida Statute section 44.103 arbitration decision by mail, Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.090(e) adds five days to the date by which a party objecting to the non-binding arbitration under must demand a trial de novo.

Tilus v. AS Michai LLC, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1040522 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

An undated blank indorsement on a promissory note filed after suit is filed does not demonstrate standing at time of filing suit. Likewise, an assignment of mortgage does not confer standing.

JBK Associates, Inc. v. Sill Bros., Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1040603 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

The investment of homestead sale proceeds in securities was not so inconsistent with the purposes of the homestead exemption that the funds lost their status as protected claims of creditors.

Bymel v. Bank of America, N.A., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1044247 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

A short-sale purchaser has a sufficient interest in the real property that he is entitled to intervene in the foreclosure proceedings regarding the property.

Russell Post Properties, Inc. v. Leaders Bank, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1044276 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

While the better practice is to attach a copy of the general release to a Proposal for Settlement, a sufficient description can substitute for the release itself.

Russell v. Southeast Housing, LLC, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1044315 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

Real property that is being jointly developed by the federal government and a private developer is exempt from ad valorem taxation if the federal government retains both equitable and beneficial ownership of the land.

Rollet v. de Bizemont, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1044369 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

An allegation that a defendant is “sui juris” is insufficient to confer long-arm jurisdiction.

CK Regalia, LLC v. Thornton, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1044400 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

Former clients may not file a declaratory judgment action attacking charging liens before the original action (to which the charging liens apply) is determined to be successful, i.e., before there is a fund to which the charging liens can attach.

Lary v. Trinity Physician Financial & Ins. Services, --- F.3d ----, 2015 WL 1089326 (11th Cir. 2015).

A single facsimile can constitute two violations of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, but treble damages for “willful and knowing” requires proof that sender knew they were sending a facsimile and that it was wrong to do so under the circumstances.

In re Seaside Engineering & Surveying, Inc., --- F.3d ----, 2015 WL 1061718 (11th Cir. 2015).

Although they should not be issued lightly, bankruptcy courts have authority to approve non-consensual non-debtor releases or bar orders in bankruptcy restructuring plans.

Estate of Williams v. Jursinski, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1259497 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).
 Notwithstanding the dictates of Florida State section 682.03 (6) ("If a party makes a motion to the court to order arbitration, the court on just terms shall stay any judicial proceeding that involves a claim alleged to be subject to the arbitration until the court renders a final decision under this section.") and even if all the defendants in the lawsuit are related, a claimant may avoid arbitration by dropping parties from the lawsuit not subject to the arbitration clause.

AG Beaumont 1, LLC v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1259649 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

Privileged documents exchanged between counsel for joint defendants pursuant to a joint defense agreement are protected by the attorney-client privilege.

Boyette v. BAC Home Loans Servicing, LP, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1211771 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

In order to be affirmed on appeal, a final judgment of foreclosure requires competent, substantial evidence of both the main damages (the amounts outstanding on the note and mortgage) and the collateral damages and costs (prejudgment interest, costs of property inspections, attorneys' fees calculations, etc.).

Fernandez v. Office of Financial Regulation, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1222679 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Appellate jurisdiction may not be conferred by stipulation of trial counsel, even if all trial counsel agree they did not timely receive the order on appeal.

Bianchi & Cecchi Services, Inc. v. Navalimpianti USA, Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1223663 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

A trial court must balance the privacy interests of third parties against the need of litigants for information from the third parties; the trial court has discretion in how to conduct its inquiry and is not necessarily required to hold an evidentiary hearing or conduct an in camera review of the documents in order to do so.

Bank of America, N.A. v. Pate, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1135923 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).
 Concurring opinion details facts constituting unclean hands defense to foreclosure.

In re Intern. Management Associates, LLC, --- F.3d ----, 2015 WL 1245503 (11th Cir. 2015).

Except for privilege issues, a trial court is not bound by the rules of evidence in making the preliminary determination of whether evidence is admissible. A person testifying as to business records must demonstrate the trustworthiness of the records, but need not have personal knowledge of how the records were created or kept in order to testify.

Florida Department of Transportation v. Clipper Bay Investments, LLC, --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 1379975 (Fla. 2015).

Land held in fee simple by the Florida Department of Transportation ("FDOT") qualifies for the right of way exception under the Marketable Record Title Act, Florida Statute section 712.03 ("MRTA"), and all parts of the property held in fee by FDOT (whether currently used as a right of way or not) are exempt from the application of MRTA.

Joara Freight Lines, Inc. v. Perez, --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 1313203 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

Parties may not be referred to a special master without their consent as doing so violates Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.490 (c).

Corkidi v. Franco Investments, LLC, --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 1315952 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

Upon remand, a trial court has the authority to carry out the implicit - as well as the explicit - instructions of the appellate court opinion.

White v. Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC, --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 1319777 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

The twenty-day notice requirement of Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.510 (c) is not jurisdictional and may be waived by failing to timely object.

Seffar v. Residential Credit Solutions, Inc., --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 1334288 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

In order to be a "holder" of a negotiable instrument, the instrument must be indorsed to the person or indorsed in blank. A non-holder in possession of a negotiable instrument may enforce the instrument, but must prove the "chain of custody" of the instrument.

Lloyd v. Bank of New York Mellon, --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 1334292 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

When relying on an undated indorsement to prove standing at time of filing foreclosure suit, plaintiff must introduce evidence the indorsement was signed prior to filing suit.

Matthews v. Federal Nat. Mortg. Ass'n, --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 1334310 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A backdated assignment does not establish standing to foreclose a mortgage.

B & B Hardware, Inc. v. Hargis Industries, Inc., --- S.Ct. ----, 2015 WL 1291915 (2015).

Decisions of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board can form the basis for issue preclusion of issues and cases brought under the Lanham Act.

Philip Morris USA, Inc. v. Russo, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1472282 (Fla. 2015).

Statute of limitation and statute of repose have differing reliance requirements when applied to fraud claims; reliance is not required during the statutory period for statutes of repose but continuing reliance is required for claims subject to limitations.

Hess v. Patrick, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1443113 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

A foreign judgement recorded under Florida's Enforcement of Foreign Judgments Act is subject to Florida's twenty-year statute of limitations for enforcement of judgments, beginning from the date the foreign judgment was rendered in the foreign forum.

22nd Century Properties, LLC v. FPH Properties, LLC, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1448446 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

The party opposing a fee award must generally point out those fees that are duplicative or excessive otherwise the objection is waived. Likewise, the result is what matters and a party seeking fees should not be penalized for seeking recovery on alternative bases on which they did not prevail. For purposes of fee awards, issues are inextricably intertwined or involve a common core of facts when work for one claim cannot be distinguished from work on other claims; claims are separate and distinct when they can support an independent action not simply alternative theories of recovery.

TRG Columbus Development Venture, Ltd. v. Sifontes, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1449633 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

A contingency fee multiplier for a case taken to trial is appropriate when the evidence demonstrates the market provides many attorneys willing to take cases on contingency but few willing to take cases to trial on contingency.

Blechman v. Estate of Blechman, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1500021 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. v. Townsend, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1578537 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).

The interest rate applied to unpaid amounts on a judgment changes whenever the statutory rate changes, i.e., the interest rate on date of a judgment does not remain the same if the statutory rate changes over the life of the unpaid judgment.

Morejon v. F & M Real Estate, Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1542215 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

A circuit court may not, as part of a mediation order, compel a mortgagor to provide financial information prior to judgment that would not otherwise be discoverable in the litigation prior to judgment.

Cornerstone SMR, Inc. v. Bank of America, N.A., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1545006 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

The Contribution Amongst Joint Tortfeasors statute, Florida Statute section 768.041, applies to judgments received and not losses incurred. Accordingly, the statute sets off recovery from the total settlement amount if there was an undifferentiated or undetailed settlement agreement which failed to set forth which claims or actions were settled.

Tilus v. AS Michai LLC, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1545223 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

An assignment of mortgage, even if dated prior to the filing of the foreclosure lawsuit, does not demonstrate standing if it does not also assign the note.

Schindler v. Bank of New York Mellon Trust Co., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1545225 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Lender may not seek to foreclose upon the same default or breach as that of a case that in which it previously has not prevailed.

Padgett v. Kessinger, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1545228 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Claims for fraud in the inducement and for breach of contract are separate and distinct for purposes of awarding attorneys' fees.

Stranburg v. Panama Commons L.P., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1546080 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).

Hahamovitch v. Delray Property Investments, Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1652713 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A merger and integration clause in a contract does not bar a fraud claim. Real estate contracts are subject to an implied duty of good faith and fair dealing, but the implied duty cannot contravene an express term, must be pursued in conjunction with a breach of contract claim, and applies only to the purportedly breached term.

Frisbie v. Carolina Cas. Ins. Co., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1736905 (Fla. 5th DCA 2015).

The affirmative defense of unclean hands typically requires determination of disputed issues of fact, and thus cannot usually be resolved on summary judgment.

Burlington & Rockenbach, P.A. v. Law Offices of E. Clay Parker, P.A., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1736915 (Fla. 5th 2015).

A contract must be interpreted as a whole, and the manner of use of the word “settled” in this attorneys’ engagement agreement means “resolved by any means” when the engagement agreement is read as a whole.

Audiffred v. Arnold, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1724250 (Fla. 2015).

A single offer to a single offeree that requests resolution of claims by or against additional parties (who are not offerors nor offerees) is a “joint proposal” that is subject to the apportionment requirement of the offer of judgment statute.

Colson v. State Farm Bank, F.S.B., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1650300 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

The amount of indebtedness in a mortgage foreclosure trial cannot be determined merely by the introduction of the loan payment history.

Griffin Industries, LLC v. Dixie Southland Corp., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1652599 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A tenant cannot terminate a lease based on constructive eviction unless the premises are unsafe, unfit or unsuitable for the demised purposes; standing storm water on the premises is not a constructive eviction unless the standing water creates a safety issue or interferes with the tenant’s operations. A landlord has no duty to mitigate damages, but if it does, a breaching tenant is responsible for the difference between its rent and rent paid by the substitute tenant if the landlord mitigates by obtaining a new tenant.

Florida Power & Light Co. v. Hicks, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 1667033 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Vista Golf, LLC v. Vista Royale Property Owners Ass'n, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 2214495 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

The following language is not an affirmative covenant that a golf course be operated, but a restrictive covenant that the land can only be used for a golf course:

1. Operation of Golf Course. The land ... shall be continuously operated as a twenty-seven (27) hole golf course similar to its operation as of the date hereof. This operation shall continue until such time as the condominium ownership of all lands constituting the condominium communities known as VISTA ROYALE and VISTA ROYALE GARDENS ... is terminated.

2. Unity of Title. The land shall, for the period of time set forth in Paragraph 1, hereof, be held, sold, conveyed, leased, mortgaged and otherwise dealt with only as a single parcel; and no portion thereof shall, during such period of time, be separately held, sold, conveyed, leased, mortgaged or otherwise dealt with.

Michaluk v. Credorax (USA), Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 2215979 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

Torocsik v. HSBC Bank USA, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3387916 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A bank may dishonor payment on a cashier’s check based only on the real or personal defenses the bank has, and may not rely on the defenses of a third party to the check.

Yaralli v. American Reprographics Co., LLC, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3387966 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Fraudulent conveyance claims are typically not subject to determination by summary judgment.

Saulnier v. Bank of America, N.A., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3388103 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A subordinate lienholder must claim surplus foreclosure sale funds by filing a claim under Florida Statute section 45.031(1)(a) within sixty days of foreclosure sale; failure to receive a copy of the foreclosure judgment does not waive the statutory requirement.

Pudlit 2 Joint Venture, LLP v. Westwood Gardens Homeowners Ass’n, Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3388254 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Florida Statute section 720.3085 unconstitutionally impairs the contract rights of owners in an association whose declaration states that present owners are not jointly responsible with prior owners for unpaid assessments.

Froonjian v. Ultimate Combatant, LLC, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3388387 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A member of an LLC that does not have an operating agreement may be expelled pursuant to a majority vote of the members, but his membership interest may not be distributed among the remaining members as the result of his expulsion.

Curcio v. State Dept. of Lottery, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3389290 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).

The State of Florida has waived sovereign immunity for breach of contract claims, but not for Florida Unfair and Deceptive Trade Practices claims.

Grove Key Marina, LLC v. Casamayor, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3390070 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

A city which leases its land to a private business is subject to county ad valorem taxes on the property since the property is being used for proprietary and not public purposes. Unless the lease between the city and the private business provides for pass-through to the private business, the private business is not liable to the city for payment of the ad valorem taxes and may not be sued for same by the county.

Daniels v. Sorriso Dental Studio, LLC, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3404071 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

The discharge in bankruptcy of a defendant's debt to a plaintiff does not also discharge a garnishee's independent, statutory liability to a plaintiff under a writ of garnishment.

Commil USA, LLC v. Cisco Systems, Inc., --- S.Ct. ----, 2015 WL 2456617 (2015).

A defendant's belief of a patent's validity is not a defense to a claim of infringement.

Wellness Intern. Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, --- S.Ct. ----, 2015 WL 2456619 (2015).

Article III of the United States Constitution permits bankruptcy courts to adjudicate Stern v. Marshall, 564 U.S. —, —, 131 S.Ct. 2594, 2618, 180 L.Ed.2d 475, claims when the parties consent to the bankruptcy court doing so.

Homestead Land Group, LLC v. City of Homestead, --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 3479418 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2015).

A potential reversionary interest is not a sufficient interest in land to permit a party to participate in condemnation proceedings.

Caribbean Cruise Line, Inc. v. Better Business Bureau of Palm Beach County, Inc., --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 3480114 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Statements by the Better Business Bureau regarding a business may be actionable under the Florida Unfair and Deceptive Practices Act, and likewise are not protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution.

Air Turbine Technology, Inc. v. Quarles & Brady, LLC, --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 3480236 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A contract that provides for a prevailing party's recovery of "legal costs and expenses" does not award prevailing party attorney's fees under Florida law. To the extent an attorney expressed a correct opinion of Florida law which was not followed by a federal court, the opinion is covered by judgmental immunity and is not malpractice.

Shirley's Personal Care Services of Okeechobee, Inc. v. Boswell, --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 3480289 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A demand for attorney's fees must be made in a pleading otherwise it is waived. However, a narrow exception exists if a party raises the issue of attorney's fees in a pretrial stipulation or otherwise puts the opposing party on notice.

Zuccarelli v. Barfield, --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 3486661 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Affidavits filed in judicial proceedings are absolutely privileged under the litigation privilege and cannot form the basis for defamation claims.

Fanelli v. HSBC Bank USA, --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 3486692 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A sentence in a mortgage foreclosure complaint demanding attorneys' fees is sufficient to put the opposing party on notice of a claim for fees, and thus meets the requirements of Stockman v. Downs, 573 So. 2d 835, 837 (Fla.1991).

Bank of America, N.A. v. Caulkett, --- S.Ct. ---, 2015 WL 2464049 (2015).

A mortgage is deemed an allowed secured claim under the Bankruptcy Code, thus a Chapter 7 debtor may not "strip off" a mortgage pursuant to 11 U.S.C.A. § 506(d) even if the mortgage is an inferior mortgage that is wholly "underwater."

Sterling Crest, Ltd., v. Blue Rock Partners Realty Group, Sterling Crest, Ltd., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3631608 (Fla. 5th DCA 2105).

A general partner may sell assets of a limited partnership in the ordinary course, but if outside of the ordinary course, only if permitted by the limited partnership agreement or with consent of the limited partners. Apparent authority of a general partner to act on behalf of the limited partners exists only when there is “a) a representation by the purported principal; (b) [reasonable] reliance on that representation by a third party; and (c) a change in position by the third party in reliance on the representation.”

In Re: Amendments To The Rules Regulating The Florida Bar (Biennial Petition), - -- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3617835 (Fla. 2015).

The Florida Supreme Court approves amendments to the Rules Regulating the Florida Bar, including retention of the requirement that every Bar member must file an annual statement certifying compliance of their trust account in accordance with the Rules.

Alachua County v. Expedia, Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3618004 (Fla. 2015).

Online hotel booking companies must pay local taxes only on the monies they receive from the hotel guest, and not the total amount the hotel guest pays.

Jax Utilities Management, Inc. v. Hancock Bank, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3622360 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).

The one year statute of limitations to enforce an equitable lien under Florida Statute section 95.11(5)(b) runs from the last furnishing of labor, materials or services to improve the project. Moreover and by its enactment, Florida Statute section 713.3471(2) eliminated common law remedies of contractors to sue lenders for improvements to projects by contractors and lienors.

Sas v. Federal Nat. Mortg. Ass'n, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3609508 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

A testifying records custodian need not have personal knowledge of how the business records were created if the records are independently verified by the custodian.

U.S. Bank Nat. Ass'n v. Rios, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3609892 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

A purchaser at a foreclosure sale buys “as is,” and cannot raise claims of fraud for failure of the foreclosing party’s failure to advise of the property’s condition.

FINR II, Inc. v. Hardee County, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3618521 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

An owner of property adjacent to another property receiving governmental action can maintain a Bert Harris Act suit if the governmental action on the adjoining property inordinately burdens the property owner; conflict certified with *City of Jacksonville v. Kobi Karp Architecture & Interior Design, Inc. v. Charms 63 Nobe, LLC, --- So.3d 2015 WL 3758154 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

A plaintiff in a breach of contract action may not request discovery of a defendant's contracts with defendant's third party clients in order to determine the custom and usage in defendant's industry when the contract is unambiguous.

Wanda Dipaola Stephen Rinko General Partnership v. Beach Terrace Ass'n, Inc., - -- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3759500 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

An award of costs under Florida Statute section 57.041, unlike an award of attorneys' fees, is based on who recovers a judgment and not on which party prevails on the significant issues in the case.

Jarvis v. Deutsche Bank Nat. Trust Co., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3760659 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

If plaintiff trust in mortgage foreclosure seeks to establish standing by arguing the note was transferred into the trust prior to suit being filed, plaintiff must prove physical possession of the note by the trustee together with the trustee being the named payee on the note, the note being bearer paper, or an indorsement to the trustee.

Teitelbaum v. South Florida Water Management Dist., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3875464 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

"Condemnation blight" is relevant to the valuation of property that has already been taken but does not apply to de facto takings claims; any diminution in value due to condemnation blight is awarded at the time of the actual taking.

Loper v. Weather Shield Mfg., Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3875549 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).

An oral promise to not sue in exchange for new house windows reaching the end of their warranty period is enforceable and not illusory as it supported by consideration (an agreement to not sue) and definite in time (the upcoming end of the warranty period). Any application of the Statute of Frauds is limited by equitable estoppel.

Silver Shells Corp. v. St. Maarten at Silver Shells Condominium Ass'n, Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3875556 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).

The five-year statute of limitations for condominium associations to bring actions to recover property improperly removed by the developer begins to run on turnover of the association, not the date of removal of the property.

Channell v. Deutsche Bank Nat. Trust Co., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 3875949 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

A foreclosing lender's mere reliance on a previous servicer's records is, without more, insufficient to establish the predicate for the Business Records Exception to the Hearsay Rule. A subsequent lender may lay the foundation by independently establishing the accuracy of the records (per WAMCO XXVIII, Ltd. v. Integrated Electronic Environments, Inc., 903 So.2d 230 (Fla. 2d DCA 2005)) or reviewing the records for accuracy prior to integrating the prior records into the lender's own records (*Bank of N.Y. v. Reddy v. Zurita, --- So. 3d ----, 2015 WL 4366570 (Fla. 5th DCA 2015).

A defendant that does not object to plaintiff's changing his claims (without amending his complaint) cannot argue after judgment (or on appeal) that the claims changed.

Central Park A Metrowest Condominium Assoc., Inc. v. AmTrust REO I, LLC, --- So. 3d ----, 2015 WL 4366573 (Fla. 5th DCA 2015).

Unless the final judgment expressly retains such jurisdiction, a trial court's inherent retention of jurisdiction does not include the jurisdiction to determine the amounts due for condominium assessments under Florida Statute section 718.116's "safe harbor."

St. Clair v. U.S. Bank Nat. Ass'n, --- So. 3d ----, 2015 WL 4379738 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

Under the "shelter rule," a non-holder in possession may enforce a promissory note it receives from a holder entitled to enforce the note even if the note was transferred to the non-holder without the intention to pass title.

Amelio v. Marilyn Pines Unit II Condominium Association, Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 4249923 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

A condominium unit owner is entitled to a mandatory injunction to force their association to repair a leaking slab since the association's failure repair violates a clear legal right (enforcement of the association documents), irreparable harm is threatened (Florida Statute section 718.303(1) holds that a violation of the association documents establishes irreparable harm), there is no adequate remedy at law (the owners cannot repair the leaking slab themselves) and award of money damages will be inadequate.

Smith v. Reverse Mortg. Solutions, Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 4257632 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

A reverse mortgage may not be foreclosed until the death of all borrowers; a wife who does not sign the promissory note (signed only by husband) but signs the mortgage itself is a "borrower" whose homestead may not be foreclosed until her death.

Peugnero v. Bank of America, N.A., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 4268796 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Bornstein v. Marcus, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 4461117 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

An individual's complaint seeking credit for a $50,000 law firm retainer paid by the individual is not a "sham pleading" merely because the $50,000 was entered as a capital contribution on the financial books of the individual's company.

Kenney v. HSBC Bank USA, Nat. Ass'n, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 4461138 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Florida Statute section 673.3011 holds that a "person entitled to enforce" a negotiable instrument means the holder of the instrument, a non-holder in possession of the instrument who has the rights of a holder, or a person not in possession of the instrument who is entitled to enforce the instrument. If plaintiff seeks to establish standing through an assignment, plaintiff must prove the assignment was executed before the suit was filed. If plaintiff seeks to establish standing as a non-holder in possession, plaintiff must produce proof that it has the rights of a holder. If plaintiff seeks to establish standing without possession, it must produce evidence that it was entitled to enforce the instrument.

Hall v. Animals.com, L.L.C., --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 4660127 (Fla. 5th DCA 2015).

A party seeking transfer of a case under forum non conveniens must submit timely affidavits so that the trial court can determine the witnesses and the significance of their testimony and so that party opposing has adequate opportunity to counter the evidence.

Arrasola v. MGP Motor Holdings, LLC, --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 4634686 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

The change in Florida Statute section 682.03(1)(b) from “hear” to “decide” indicates that a trial court may summarily dispose, without hearing, a motion to compel arbitration.

Moreno v. First Intern. Title, Inc., --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 4637238 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

A party to a contract cannot claim she signed it without reading it unless she can prove circumstances that prevented her reading the contract. Accordingly, a party who signs a disclosure at closing attesting to code enforcement liens on the property she is buying cannot later sue the title agent for breach of fiduciary duty regarding the liens.

Conde & Cohen, P.L. v. Grandview Palace Condominium Ass'n, Inc., --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 4637285 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

Unlike a charging lien, an attorney’s retaining lien “covers the balance due for all legal work done on behalf of the client regardless of whether the property is related to the matter [in which the property is held].” The attorney under a retaining lien may retain the property until the attorney is paid, the client can demonstrate a compelling need for the property, or the client posts adequate security in place of the lien.

Balch v. LaSalle Bank N.A., --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 3759716 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Evidence that a lender transferred a note into a pooling service agreement (PSA) is, by itself, insufficient to establish standing as the lender must also introduce evidence that the transfer into the PSA likewise included a transfer of the interest in the note to the trustee of the pool.

CitiMortgage, Inc. v. Turner, --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 4623656 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).

A co-tenant who does not sign the promissory note for a loan but co-signs the mortgage encumbering the entire property (not just the co-tenant’s interest) may be foreclosed of his interest upon default by the borrowers even if he signed the mortgage with a “Limited Purpose Execution” notation under his signature.

Snowden v. Wells Fargo Bank, --- So.3d ---, 2015 WL 4623731 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).

A borrower seeking to overturn a judgment (after trial) of foreclosure claiming lack of standing must provide a transcript of the lender’s testimony or evidence of standing, even if the pleadings might raise a question of standing.

Andrews v. Bayview Loan Servicing, LLC, --- So. 3d ----, 2015 WL 4768981 (Fla. 5th DCA 2015).

A junior lienor can require a foreclosing plaintiff prove its case at trial even if the plaintiff and the principal defendant have agreed to a settlement without trial.

TD Bank, N.A. v. Graubard, --- So. 3d ----, 2015 WL 4769264 (Fla. 5th DCA 2015).

A foreclosure judgment sets the “validity, priority and extent of [the] debt,” so introduction into evidence of the final judgment of foreclosure is not necessary when a deficiency judgment is entered in the same action as the foreclosure judgment.

Boumarate v. HSBC Bank USA, N.A., --- So. 3d ----, 2015 WL 4769304 (Fla. 5th DCA 2015).

In order to re-establish a lost negotiable instrument, a lender must prove it was entitled to enforce the instrument at the time of its loss (but not more than the statute requires).

Borden Dairy Co. of Alabama, LLC v. Kuhajda, --- So. 3d ----, 2015 WL 4774629 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).

An offer of judgment is ineffective if it fails to state whether the offer includes attorneys’ fees even if the underlying suit does not claim attorneys’ fees. Conflict certified with Bennett v. American Learning Systems of Boca Delray, Inc., 857 So. 2d 986 (Fla. 4th DCA 2003).

Woodbridge Holdings, LLC v. Prescott Group Aggressive Small Cap Master Fund, --- So. 3d ----, 2015 WL 4747174 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

In order to constitute a “fair offer” to dissenting shareholders under Florida’s dissenting shareholder statute, Florida Statute section 607.1322, the offer must use “customary and current valuation concepts and techniques.”

Michele K. Feinzig, P.A. v. Deehl & Carlson, P.A., --- So. 3d ----, 2015 WL 4747876 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2015).

An oral contract for one law firm to assist another law firm through trial and appeal is not subject to the Statute of Frauds if the contract was intended to last less than one year.

Prime Group, LLC v. Abbo, --- So. 3d ----, 2015 WL 4750832 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A trial court cannot determine that a party has waived a privilege without first giving the party an opportunity to object, and if contested, an evidentiary hearing.

OneWest Bank, FSB v. Cummings, --- So. 3d ----, 2015 WL 4758342 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

Fowler v. TD Bank, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 4945008 (Fla. 5th DCA 2015).

A conflict between the legal descriptions and street addresses on two disputed mortgages requires the trial court to make factual findings as to the intent of the parties and requires that a motion for summary judgment be denied.

Bank of America v. The Enclave at Richmond Place Condominium Ass'n, Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 4965912 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

An association's answer to a mortgage foreclosure complaint which demands the amounts due under the "safe harbor" provisions of Florida Statute section 718.116 (1)(b) estops the association from claiming greater amount post-judgment.

Grand Central at Kennedy Condominium Ass'n, Inc. v. Space Coast Credit Union, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 4923677 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

Upon entry of the final judgment, a trial court loses jurisdiction to determine the amounts due under the "safe harbor" provisions of Florida Statute section 718.116 (1)(b) unless the final judgment reserved jurisdiction for that specific purpose.

Santa Rosa Investors, Inc. v. Wilson, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 4925217 (Fla. 1st DCA 2015).

The phrase "liquidated or liquidated" in a durable power of attorney is ambiguous, and requires the trial court make factual findings regarding the intent of the parties.

Palm Beach Polo Holdings, Inc. v. Broward Marine, Inc., --- So.3d ----2015 WL 4926551 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Notwithstanding that it was not raised in opening statements nor in the preliminary instructions to the jury, a specific defense is preserved and may be presented to the jury if it is raised in the pleadings and the pretrial stipulation.

Perez v. Deutsche Bank Nat. Trust Co., --- So.3d ----2015 WL 4930749 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A foreclosing lender who is not the original lender and who does not have the original note indorsed to it at the time of filing suit must establish that it had the note at the time of filing suit.

Donado v. PennyMac Corp., --- So.3d ----2015 WL 4930873 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

The verification requirements of Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.110 (b) became effective upon the issuance of the original Florida Supreme Court opinion, not the revised opinion issued several months later.

Infinity Home Care, L.L.C. v. Amedisys Holding, LLC, --- So.3d ----2015 WL 4927257 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Referral sources are a legitimate business interests subject to protection by covenants not to compete under Florida Statute section 542.335; conflict certified with Florida Hematology & Oncology v. Tummala, 927 So.2d 135 (Fla. 5th DCA 2006).

Federal Home Loan Mortg. Corp. v. Beekman, --- So.3d ----2015 WL 4926956 (Fla. 4th 2015).

A trial court errs by entering a judgment enforcing a loan modification when such relief was not requested in the pleadings, was not tried by consent, and there was no evidence that the modification was agreed to by the parties.

Lamb v. Nationstar Mortg., LLC, --- So.3d ----2015 WL 4930268 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A foreclosing bank seeking to enforce a note which is specially indorsed to another may prove standing “ ‘through evidence of a valid assignment, proof of purchase of the debt, or evidence of an effective transfer.’ ”

Cardona v. Nationstar Mortg., LLC, --- So.3d ----2015 WL 4931354 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A & A Elec. Services, Inc. v. Jurado, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 5023126 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

The party seeking to prove the existence of a joint venture must prove that “(1) a community of interest in the performance of the common purpose, (2) joint control or right of control, (3) a joint proprietary interest in the subject matter, (4) a right to share in the profits[,] and (5) a duty to share in any losses.” A single letter from one shareholder of purported joint venturer to the sole shareholder of the other purported joint venture does not establish an agreement to enter into the joint venture.

Ball v. Genesis Outsourcing Solutions, LLC, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 5023447 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

An order granting summary judgment is not an appealable order. A final judgment granting summary judgment should read along the lines of “. . . [t]he motion for summary judgment is granted. Final judgment is entered as follows. The plaintiff [name and address] shall recover from defendant [name and address] the sum of $... that shall bear interest at the rate of ... % per year for which let execution issue. The court reserves jurisdiction to consider a timely motion to tax costs and attorney's fees.” Likewise, a final summary judgment in favor of a defendants should read along the lines of. . . “[t]he motion for summary judgment is granted. Final judgment is entered for defendant [name] and against plaintiff [name]. The court reserves jurisdiction to consider a timely motion to tax costs and attorney's fees.” The traditional phrase of finality for a defendant is “plaintiff shall take nothing by this action and defendant shall go hence without day.”

Fiorito v. JP Morgan Chase Bank, Nat. Ass'n, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 5026181 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A lender at trial need only present competent, substantial evidence of its standing at time of filing suit; a bank employee's testimony that the lender owned the note at time of filing suit is sufficient. If standing derives from an indorsement on the note, the lender must prove the indorsement was placed on the note prior to filing suit.

Donovan Marine, Inc. v. Delmonico, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 5026795 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A trial court must make factual findings regarding attorneys' fees hours not awarded.

Donovan Marine, Inc. v. Delmonico, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 5026795 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Upon request by the plaintiff, a trial court must enter a directed verdict against those defendants the court has previously defaulted.

Strazzulla v. Riverside Banking Company, --- So.3d ----2015 WL 5125454 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

The Fourth District adopts the Third District's Dinuro Investments, LLC v. Camacho, 141 So.3d 731 (Fla. 3d DCA 2014), two-prong test and holds that shareholders must allege both a direct harm and a special injury in order to bring a direct action against the company in their individual capacity.

Market Tampa Investments, LLC v. Stobaugh, --- So.3d ----2015 WL 5131679 (Fla. 2d DCA 2015).

One who purchases property during a pending foreclosure case in which a lis pendens has been filed is generally not entitled to intervene.

Pacific Nat. Bank, N.A. v. Home Tower Condominium, Inc., --- So.3d ----2015 WL 5131556 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Unless there is lack of "actual consent" or failure of subject matter jurisdiction, a party loses the right to an appeal if it agrees to a final judgment without reserving the right to appeal an issue or the matter.

Key West Seaside, LLC v. Certified Lower Keys Plumbing, Inc., --- So.3d ----2015 WL 5132383 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

The fact that the successful offeror of a proposal for settlement may claim its attorney's fees from another co-defendant is not a basis for denying the request for fees.

Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. v. Clavero, --- So.3d ----2015 WL 5132447 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

A non-signer's receipt of mortgage funds (or receipt of the benefit of the funds) may supply a missing signature to a mortgage under equitable subrogation principles. However, ratification of an agent's prior mortgage may occur only when the principal has full knowledge of the details surrounding the mortgage.

Rivernider v. Meyer, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 5244635 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

The litigation privilege does not apply when all the elements of the tort of malicious prosecution are satisfied. However, a more lenient standard applies to attorneys as attorneys have a duty of representation that requires certain actions.

Dadd v. Houde, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 5245138 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

Although she must do so by clear and convincing evidence, an adverse possessor's burden is only to prove the property is possessed "under claim of right or color of title, and [that the adverse possession was] actual, open, visible, notorious, continuous and hostile to the true owner and to the world at large." A party gaining property through adverse possession passes title to the property to her successors in title.

CT Miami, LLC v. Samsung Electronics Latinoamerica Miami, Inc., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 5247160 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

There are three possible forms of challenges to arbitration agreements: (1) a challenge to the arbitration provision itself; (2) a challenge to the contract as a whole that the contract, although reached, is not valid on other legal or public policy grounds, and (3) a challenge to the contract as a whole that alleges there was never an agreement between the parties in the first place. The third category of challenge is decided by the trial court, and an evidentiary hearing to decide the issue is necessary only when a "substantial issue" is raised as to contract formation.

Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. v. Palm Beach Mall, LLC, --- So. 3d ----, 2015 WL 5712341 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Applying New York law, the Fourth District holds that a guarantee operative only when the mortgagor engages in “gross negligence or willful misconduct” requires a “deliberate act beyond a party merely acting out of its economic self-interest,” and that an intentional non-payment of the mortgage or the “de-leasing” (e.g., seeking short-term “Mom and Pop” stores instead of long-term credit-worthy tenants) is not sufficient to call into operation the guarantee. Moreover, New York law defines “insolvency” as inability to make payments when due and not “equity-insolvency” of the property.

5730 Lake Underhill, LLC v. Smith-Horner, LLP, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 6757518 (Fla. 5th DCA 2015).

A party claiming a prescriptive easement must demonstrate the use was adverse; use of another's land is presumed to be with the consent of the owner and subordinate to the rights of the owner and use by patrons is not adverse if pursuant to a written lease.

Joseph B. Doerr Trust v. Central Florida Expressway Authority, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 6748858 (Fla. 2015).

Florida Statute section 73.092(2), not the straight "benefits achieved" method of section 73.092(1), is employed to determine the landowner's attorneys' fees when the condemning authority engages in excessive litigation.

Rogers v. U.S., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 6749915 (Fla. 2015).

The estate conveyed by a deed and the actual property conveyed is determined by the intent of the grantor, and not by whether the consideration was nominal or whether "strips and gores" are created.

Florida Digestive Health Specialists, LLC v. Colina, Case No. 2D14-4561 (Fla. 2d DCA November 4, 2015).

A court may not consider factors outside of Florida Statute section 542.335 in determining whether to enforce restrictive covenants, and specifically may not consider whether the harm to the restricted party outweighs the benefit to the restricting party.

Deutsche Bank Trust Co. Americas v. Frias, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 6735332 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

A prior servicer's business records are admissible so long as the witness has some knowledge of how the prior records were maintained and created.

Jelic v. BAC Home Loans Servicing, LP, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 6735353 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

An undated indorsement that appears for the first time after suit is filed is insufficient, by itself, to confer standing on the holder of the note.

Bank of New York Mellon v. Nunez, --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 6735856 (Fla. 3d DCA 2015).

Parties need only substantially comply with conditions precedent in mortgages.

Straub v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., --- So.3d ----, 2015 WL 6738732 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

For purposes of claiming surplus foreclosure proceeds under Florida Statute section 45.031, a foreclosure sale is completed upon the issuance of the certificate of title by the clerk of the court. Thus, a claim for surplus proceeds filed more than sixty days after judicial sale but less than sixty days after issuance of certificate of title is timely.

Dana's R.R. Supply v. Attorney General, Florida, --- F.3d ----, 2015 WL 6725138 (11th Cir. 2015).

Florida Statute section 501.0117 (surcharges not permitted on credit card transactions) is an unconstitutional abridgement of free speech.

Parnell v. CashCall, No. 4:14-cv-00024-HLM (11th Cir. October 28, 2015).

A party seeking to challenge the validity of a “delegation provision” in an arbitration agreement (the arbitrator decides challenges to arbitration) must challenge the delegation provision directly.

U.S. Bank, N.A. v. Grant, Case No. 4D14-979, slip op. (Fla. 4th DCA December 2, 2015).

A bank's mortgage lien takes priority over a later filed community association lien; the association lien does not relate back to the declaration of the community association unless the declaration reflects it will have priority over later filed mortgage liens.

Mauro v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., --- So. 3d ---- 2015 WL 7752675 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Returns of service are not excluded hearsay grounds.

Transunion Risk and Alternative Data Solutions, Inc. v. Reilly, --- So. 3d ---- 2015 WL 7740421 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015).

Once a party enforcing a restrictive employment covenant shows it had a legitimate business interest covered by the covenant, it is entitled to a rebuttable presumption of irreparable injury and the employee must prove the absence of injury. Likewise, a continued breach of the covenant establishes an inadequate remedy at law, substantial likelihood on the merits, and the public interest in entering an injunction.

Daniel v. Morris, --- So. 3d ---- 2015 WL 7782828 (Fla. 5th DCA 2015).

With three decades of both transactional and litigation experience, including as outside general counsel for a savings and loan association, Manny approaches his clients' legal challenges with a perspective that combines legal knowledge with a practical understanding of the financial services industry. Manny focuses on transactional matters (with an emphasis on real estate), business litigation, debtor-creditor law, creditor representation in bankruptcy, and appellate law. He is board certified by The Florida Bar in both Real Estate Law and Business Litigation.

Throughout his career, Manny has counseled businesses in numerous industries and of varying sizes, including lenders and government agencies such as the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), the Resolution Trust Corporation (RTC), and the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation (FSLIC), as well as numerous borrowers in complex transactions. Manny has also provided counsel in corporate mergers and acquisitions; financial and debtor-creditor matters to creditors and lenders (including bankruptcy and complex foreclosure litigation); landlord/tenant disputes; Internet law; and construction and real estate development matters.

For more than 20 years, Manny has served as an arbitrator for the American Arbitration Association, has significant FINRA (Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, formerly NASDR) arbitration experience, and is certified as a Florida Supreme Court approved mediator. He also previously served as a Foreclosure Commissioner for the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). Manny served as a law clerk for the Honorable C. McFerrin Smith of the Ninth Judicial Circuit Court of Florida while in law school and to Judges James T. Downey and Bobbi Gunther of the Florida Fourth District Court of Appeal following law school.

Manny has authored numerous legal publications, including Florida Real Estate Law (Thomson-West), the real estate component of West's Florida Practice Series, and publishes the (Florida) Real Property and Business Litigation Report, a highly read weekly compilation of Florida real estate and business cases. The Florida Supreme Court appointed Manny the Chair of its committee on business jury instructions, and he is a regular speaker on topics as diverse as real estate law, business litigation, technology law, and professionalism.
