BLS FELLOWS
CLASS OF 2016-2018

Samantha S. Rhayem, Esq.
Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP
Miami, Florida

Samantha focuses her practice in the area of commercial insurance coverage. She graduated from the University of Miami School of Law, where she received two outstanding merit scholarships and several Dean's List Awards and Dean's Certificates of Achievement. Samantha also interned for the Honorable Ellen Sue Venzer in the Eleventh Judicial Circuit Court in Miami, Florida.

Prior to law school, Samantha went to Florida International University where she graduated with a dual major in English and Advertising. As an undergraduate student, Samantha received numerous scholarships and achievement awards.

Michelle K. Suarez, Esq.
Kelley Kronenberg, P.A.
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

Michelle is a Cuban-American born raised in Miami, and the first in her family to receive a graduate degree, and the second oldest of five siblings. She considers herself to be the product of a strong matriarchal family, in which women have been blessed with strong female mentors and friends.

Michelle practices in business transactions and litigation, with a niche passion for working with fitness related business and athletes, entrepreneurs, and start up companies.

Michelle interests include spending time with my partner, Tim, my Beagle named Archer, and my Shih-Tzu named Boo. She loves lifting weights, writing, reading, movies, and dancing. Some day she hopes to master how to take an engine apart and put it back together.

Christina Y. Taylor, Esq.
Latham, Shuker, Eden & Beaudine, LLP
Orlando, Florida

Christina was born and raised in South Florida. She studied Finance, and her interest in corporate matters and working with business entities guided her decision to attend law school.

Christina's practice focuses on all areas of commercial litigation at both the state and federal level, with a particular emphasis on complex commercial litigation matters.

Outside of the law, Christina's interests include photography and training her rescue pug.
