

The Florida Bar Business Law Section
Bankruptcy Judicial Liaison Committee Agenda
June 26, 2013
Boca Raton, Florida

- I. Call to order:
  - a. Introduction of attendees.
  - b. Send me e-mail addresses if you are not receiving e-mails.
  - c. General statement on confidentiality of comments during meeting.
- II. Reminder of resolution by Business Law Section of support and commitment for pro bono representation.
- III. Reports from the Courts:
  - a. Northern District;
  - b. Middle District; and
  - c. Southern District.
- IV. Reports from the Bar Associations:
  - a. Northern District;
  - b. Middle District, Jacksonville Division;
  - c. Middle District, Orlando Division;
  - d. Middle District, Tampa Division;
  - e. Middle District, Ft Myers Division; and
  - f. Southern District.
- V. Reports on Pro Bono Initiatives.
- VI. Differences and similarities in the various mortgage modification mediation programs ( Judge Jennemann).
- VII. Availability of Loan Modification Mediation for Chapter 7 pro bono debtors (Carlos Sardi).
- VIII. What is the position of the Judges in SDFL regarding debtors' ability to keep their home, but not claim it as exempt, and use their homestead exemption wildcard of 4k to exempt actual equity in another asset? (Mary E. Stockman).

- IX. Is it grounds to seek removal of the Trustee if the Trustee incorrectly submits a stipulated order stating the Debtors and their counsel have reviewed a motion and proposed order? (Mary E. Stockman).
- X. Is it appropriate for a trustee to file a motion using a proposed counsel? (Mary E. Stockman).
- XI. What is the proper response when counsel file a Notice to receive notices in bankruptcy proceeding and treat it as if they have filed a Notice of Appearance/Representation of the creditor? (Mary E. Stockman).
- XII. What may be required to support a motion to remove a Trustee from a case for inappropriate behavior and/or knowingly filing a motion with the Court containing false statements? (Mary E. Stockman).
- XIII. Reports on diversity initiatives within our committee.
- XIV. New Issues (open to everyone).
- XV. Future meeting date (August 30, 2013).
- XVI. Adjourn for dinner.